Chairman Harnett Will...

- Acknowledge mistakes and apologize as appropriate; Express regret for statements questioning the motivation of staff and for making the “poll tax” comment.

- Recommit to making fundraising a priority for the Chairman and staff; (Staff will provide the Chairman with call lists for all known donor prospects.)

- Maintain a schedule of events to recruit new party members and to motivate the party grass roots membership (with assistance from the NCGOP staff to identify opportunities); Coordinate organization and turnout efforts with staff and county party organizations.

- Accept the $90 registration fee for the 2016 NCGOP Convention without further public debate or confusing announcements

- Work cooperatively and respectfully with the NCGOP staff

- Agree to strictly follow the NCGOP Plan of Organization and, where there are differences in interpretation, to confer closely with the Central Committee and Executive Committee to resolve those differences

- Issue no more press releases or public statements which criticize staff or party members

Central Committee (CC) Will...

- Cancel the called Executive Committee meeting for April 30, 2016; Acknowledge mistakes and apologize as appropriate; Retract CC censure of Chairman Harnett; Discontinue allegations of civil or criminal wrongdoing by the Chairman

- Restore the Chairman’s access to the state GOP headquarters, his e-mail, and the NCGOP computer system (including donor lists, Mail Chimp, i360, GOP Database Center, etc.); Agree not to disable or deny access to these resources in the future without due process

- Agree to work closely with the Chairman in a concerted effort to reduce future NCGOP Convention business session fees to the lowest practical level so grass roots Republicans can afford to attend and participate.

- Agree to participate with the Chairman in an earnest effort to minimize future NCGOP Convention registration fees for the business session

- Instruct NCGOP staff, including the Executive Director, to work cooperatively and respectfully with the Chairman

- Return the General Counsel position to its historical role of behind-the-scenes consultation and advice

- Issue no more press releases or public statements which criticize the Chairman

The Chairman and the Central Committee will Jointly...

- Issue a statement of unity acknowledging that contentious issues have been resolved, accepting apologies from each side, and pledging to work together for a successful election year for the NCGOP

- Make a concerted effort to work as a team, putting aside past disagreements

- Encourage their respective members and/or supporters to refrain from publishing or making any further inflammatory or disparaging comments about these matters on social media, in quotes to the press, in party mailings, etc.
