Chris Smithson I'd probably do poorly on at least the math. I knew a lot more math in HS than I do now. For 99% of us, we can get though daily life just fine with the basic knowledge of geometry and the ability to solve simple linear equations ( $x + 3 = 8$  what is  $x$ ?).

Sean O'Leary Anything to do with the unusable property he owns at the end of Goodwill Rd between Old Mail Rd and Ft Bragg, kinda where the proposed bypass would go through? He wouldn't benefit from that in any way, eh?
