

In case we haven't met, I'm Ted Budd. I'm a husband, father, and small business owner born and raised in Davie County.

I've been honored to serve North Carolina as a conservative Senator, fighting alongside President Trump to advance our America First agenda and speak for YOUR values.

But radical Roy Cooper and his extremist backers want to erase us, [REDACTED]

Roy Cooper is counting on you to forget one plain and simple truth this November:

There is NO SUCH THING as a moderate Democrat anymore.

His record as governor was nothing but a red-letter disaster for our state. He made it very clear that he stands with the woke left 100% of the time.

Cooper pretends to be a moderate in his campaigns, but his record is clear:

If he wins this Senate seat, Roy Cooper will vote in line with his party's radical, anti-American agenda at every turn.

He will block President Trump at every turn and dismantle our America First agenda.

He will launch baseless impeachments and vicious smear campaigns against conservatives.

And he will force woke extremism down our throats and call us "enemies of Democracy" when we disagree.

[REDACTED] with so much at stake, failure is not an option.

That's why I need you to join my North Carolina Victory Committee today.

Because the best way you can help me fight back against extremist Roy Cooper is by returning your North Carolina
